ANDERSON SANTANA
BRUSSELS INTERNATIONAL BALLET

Student Sponsorhip Guidline

How your donation helps?

1000 EUR

This is a contribution to a one-year scholarship of at least one of our talented students of the Professional Training Program. This amount will help with his/her accommodation, rental fee, local travel fees, meals, health insurance, doctor visits. If requested, you will have the opportunity to meet the student who receives this sponsorship. Your name (or company name) will appear in every media communication of our school, this includes our website too. The school will contact you upon receiving your generous support. For further information please contact our school by email or by phone. If you wish to proceed with your donation now, please click on the relevant button to start to make your payment. Thank you for your support!

3000 EUR

This is a contribution to a one-year scholarship of at least one or two of our talented students of the Professional Training Program. This amount will help with his/her accommodation, rental fee, local travel fees, meals, health insurance, doctor visits. If requested, you will have the opportunity to meet the student who receives this sponsorship. Your name (or company name) will appear in every media communication of our school, this includes our website too. The school will contact you upon receiving your generous support. For further information please contact our school by email or by phone. If you wish to proceed with your donation now, please click on the relevant button to start to make your payment. Thank you for your support!

5000 EUR

This is a contribution to a one-year scholarship of at least one or more of our talented students of the Professional Training Program. This amount will help with his/her accommodation, rental fee, local travel fees, meals, health insurance, doctor visits. If requested, you will have the opportunity to meet the student who receives this sponsorship. Your name (or company name) will appear in every media communication of our school, this includes our website too. The school will contact you upon receiving your generous support. For further information please contact our school by email or by phone. If you wish to proceed with your donation now, please click on the relevant button to start to make your payment. Thank you for your support!

8000 EUR

This contribution is a full support to the total amount of 8,000€ for a one-year scholarship of one of our talented students of the Professional Training Program. This amount will fully cover his/her accommodation, rental fee, travel fees, meals, health insurance, doctor visits for 1 full academic year. If requested, you will have the opportunity to meet the student who receives this sponsorship. Your name (or company name) will appear in every media communication of our school, this includes our website too. The school will contact you upon receiving your generous support. For further information please contact our school by email or by phone. If you wish to proceed with your donation now, please click on the relevant button to start to make your payment. Thank you for your support!